Idyllic, north-facing location on Moonah Links

This north-facing, vacant block of approximately 761 sqm is in an enviable location within the flourishing Moonah Links community. Situated in a gated, well-managed, residential zone at the end of the Arthurs View cul-de-sac, surrounded by a naturally beautiful environment and quality designer homes, one can build a home that will continue to enhance your quality of life.

Our agents and our office are located on Moonah Links, so we are available to show you over this block any day of the week and answer any queries you may have about building here on this block.

From this tranquil setting, walk out your front door onto the practice chip and putt area and pristine parkland for residents of this street only plus, look out over 15th green at the rear of the block.

Concept plans for a home designed specifically for this block are available if required. Enjoy all the facilities this world-class resort has to offer including: 2 championship golf courses; clubhouse with restaurant, bar, gym, golf pro shop and day spa. Just one hour from Melbourne CBD and minutes from beaches, shopping and commercial centres on the southern Mornington Peninsula.
