

13 Nagles View, Fingal

Magnificent Wide, Uninterrupted Views and Sunsets from 13 Nagles View

13 Nagles with one of the very best of views at Moonah Links, is in a unique location with no near neighbours, and designed to enjoy coastal resort living, situated beside the second fairway of The Legends Course and overlooking the course towards the Clubhouse. Walk straight in from garage and front entry to daily living area, viewing deck and main bedroom.

When on the deck at 13 Nagles View, one feels you are floating above the second fairway below. From the interior of the house or from the decks, look out over the Legends Course and beyond to Bass Strait – you may even see 'The Spirit of Tasmania' glide by on the horizon!

Contact John to arrange a viewing of this property - our office at Moonah Links is open 7 days a week.

This is an amazing location if you are looking for views, privacy and separation for family or guests. The setting for this residence is also unique at Moonah Links, with added privacy, protection from the elements and separation from neighbouring properties provided by the maintained green wedges with established trees, including ancient moonah trees, on either side. In addition, on the opposite side of the street is an avenue of native planting – no neighbours opposite. Land size 781 sq m.

This contemporary home features quality fixtures and finishes and generously sized rooms throughout. At entry level, overlooking the Legends Course and beyond to Bass Strait, are all your daily living requirements: open-plan living, dining and kitchen area opening to the deck; luxurious main bedroom; home office / fourth bedroom; and double garage access. The lower level also overlooks the golf course. Here on the lower level is: the spacious second living area opening to the lower deck and spa deck; two guest bedrooms with golf course views; powder room, bathroom and
