

23 Arthurs View, Fingal

A Sanctuary within a Gated Sanctuary at Moonah Links Golf Resort

Set in the midst of the naturally beautiful environment of Moonah Links Golf Resort, is this most striking and interesting near- new, five bedroom home in which the organic quality of the materials are essential to the design. Encased in Australian hardwood (Silvertop Ash) and beautifully crafted rammed-earth walls, 23 Arthurs View is a sanctuary within in a gated sanctuary, north-facing on a level block of approximately 830 sq m and overlooking the adjacent manicured parkland with chipping and putting practice area for residents of the street. At the rear of 23 is open green space maintained by the golf course.

The unique layered façade of the residence with timber screening on the upper level, is effective in providing privacy and getting the right amount of natural light for the interior. The interior spaces are exquisitely designed with a minimalistic approach and the use of natural materials throughout the home on features such as: wall paneling; rammed-earth walls; timber joinery/cabinetry and, hydronically-heated, polished white concrete floors with a terrazzo finish.

The intimate connection of occupants with the surrounding environment is also notably important in the design.

Large windows and sliding glass doors ensure occupants always enjoy the freshness of the surrounding greenery and the changing skies as they go about their daily activities. The seamless movement between indoors and the outdoor living spaces, add to the peace, tranquility and security of this stunning property.

The house, boasting great separation for family members and guests comprises:

The ground floor is dedicated to everyday living with: the spacious, open-plan living area extending to the pool courtyard; large kitchen with integrated refrigerator, large butler's pantry and wine cellar; spacious laundry - Calcutta marble bench tops in kitchen/ butler's pantry and laundry.
