

2 Woodland Way, Fingal

An Architecturally Designed Home Nestled Within Ancient Moonah Woodland

With unrivaled views over the green of the 1st hole on the Open Course at Moonah Links Golf Resort and its' seclusion in a pocket of ancient Moonah trees, this four bedroom, architecturally designed home is enviably located – wedged between two championship golf courses and with a north-easterly orientation.

2 Woodland Way, reflects the thoughtful design of leading architects Jackson, Clements and Burrows. Externally, the house harmonises with its' surrounding landscape with timber cladding, the use of naturally-weathering timber and stone. The clean design lines create a contemporary appeal and timeless functionality.

At treetop height, enjoy the action on the course from the spacious open-plan living area (living, dining and kitchen) or from the peninsula of timber decking that defines the linear style and separate spaces of this home. Also at treetop height are: tv/media room/ study; main bedroom, ensuite with bath and powder room.

On the entry level, the battened timber entry leads to a spacious foyer, a further three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The practical design of the home extends to a separate laundry opening to the utility area, and the spacious garage which houses two cars and golf cart.

The landscaping blends with the natural environment. It includes the indigenous plantings, screening trees and the use of stone and timber decking, to provide private outdoor living and relaxation spaces.

Some of the quality features:

*large, timber-framed windows, sliding doors and louvres provide great viewing of the surroundings, plenty of natural light and natural ventilation throughout the house;
